Policy on Volunteer and Member Police Record Checks

Bruce Peninsula Minor Hockey Association recognizes it has significant responsibilities with respect to its players and members.

Bruce Peninsula Minor Hockey Association recognizes that some of the positions in the organization are of significant trust. People applying for or undertaking positions of trust within the Association will be subject to a screening process that is more intense than the process for individuals who are not in positions of trust.

For designated positions within this organization, a Police Record Check will be required as one element of the screening process. These positions include but are not limited to certain Board Members in positions of trust, Coaches, Assistant Coaches and Trainers.

Individuals with Criminal Code convictions or charges pending for certain offences within the previous 10 (ten) years, will not be accepted for a direct service position with vulnerable clients. These offences include, but are not limited to, the following:

It should be noted that every member and volunteer once accepted, is obligated to inform an appropriate Association Board Member if he or she is charged, tried or convicted of any Offence under the Criminal Code or under other provincial or federal statutes, if that Offence is relative to a position of trust held by the individual.

Procedures for Police Record Checks:

- Individuals will complete "Consent for Criminal Record Check" and submit completed form to designated Board member.
- To ensure Board members are above reproach, completed forms will be forwarded to a Designate who will maintain these records in confidence.
- Once the Police Record Check has been completed, the Designate will contact only those applicants who DO NOT meet the criteria as outlined in the Police Record Check policy statement. This will allow the applicant a chance to withdraw any application for a position of trust.
